

"He who never leaves his country is full of prejudices"

HENRY LEWIS BULLEN

Bon Voyage Luncheon

TENDERED

MR. HENRY LEWIS BULLEN

BY HIS FELLOW WORKERS

DECEMBER 11, 1923

GENERAL OFFICES
AMERICAN TYPE FOUNDERS COMPANY
JERSEY CITY, NEW JERSEY

Invited Guests

MR. NATHAN BILLSTEIN
Baltimore, Md.

MR. THOMAS M. CLELAND
New York, N. Y.

MR. CHARLES H. DAVIS
New York, N. Y.

MR. HARRY L. GAGE
New York, N. Y.

MR. JOSEPH E. HANSON
Newark, N. J.

MR. HARRY HILLMAN
Chicago, Ill.

MR. SAMUEL H. HORGAN
New York, N. Y.

MR. HENRY LEWIS JOHNSON
Boston, Mass.

MR. JOHN CLYDE OSWALD
New York, N. Y.

MR. ISAAC M. PINKNEY
New York, N. Y.

MR. BRUCE ROGERS
New York, N. Y.

MR. WILLIAM E. RUDGE
New York, N. Y.

MR. FREDERIQUE WARDE
Princeton, N. J.

MR. JOHN B. WILLIAMS
Philadelphia, Pa.

"I am awful sorry that I cannot be present at the luncheon for friend Henry. I would make the trip now but for the fact that the doctor decided to increase the space for liquor in my tank by taking out my appendix. I lost a lot of time.

"I may see Henry in England or some other part of Europe next summer. Tell him I wish he would spend a lot of money on books and get the thrill I did."

JOHN HENRY NASH, San Francisco, Cal.

"Nothing I can think of could afford me more pleasure than to be present at the farewell luncheon for my old young friend, Henry L. Bullen. My acquaintance and friendship are of my earlier years, when he and I were in our callow youth in the printing business; but alas! I am in my eighty-ninth year, and all such dissipation is taboo. So I must decline your cordial invitation. Kindly give Mr. Bullen the 'good-bye' and best wishes for a pleasant journey and a safe return."

THOMAS TODD, Boston, Mass.

Fellow Workers

MR. LAFOY G. BARBER

MR. H. OTTO BARTH

MR. LINN BOYD BENTON

MR. MORRIS F. BENTON

MR. FRANK B. BERRY

MR. H. F. BROWN

MR. GEORGE W. CHURCH

MR. JAMES A. COLEMAN

MR. WILLIAM A. DUBOC

MR. ELMO DUFF

MR. JOHN F. FALLON

MR. JOSEPH F. GILICK

MR. EDWARD GORMAN

MR. EDWARD P. HULSE

MR. CHARLES W. KELLOGG

MR. WILLIAM M. KELLY

MR. BENJAMIN KIMBALL

MR. CLARENCE C. MARDER

MR. WALTER S. MARDER

MR. J. RUSSELL MERRICK

MR. WILLIAM MORE

MR. ROBERT W. NELSON

MR. GEORGE E. PACKARD

MR. WADSWORTH A. PARKER

MR. FRANK K. PHILLIPS

MR. JOSEPH W. PHINNEY

MR. JAMES L. POPE

MR. O. SCHRAUBSTADTER

Luncheon Menu

SEA FOOD COCKTAIL

CONSOMME AMERICAN

CELERY RADISHES OLIVES

HALIBUT VERONIQUE

POTATOES PARISIENNE

SWEETBREADS MONTE BELLO PEAS

JUMBO SQUAB

SALAD MACEDOINE

BISCUIT TORTONI

CAKES

CAFÉ

Chronology

HENRY LEWIS BULLEN'S CONNECTION WITH THE AMERICAN TYPE FOUNDERS COMPANY

1892

Sales Manager of the New York Selling House

1895

First Advertising Manager, bringing out the Company's earliest type specimen books and catalogues

1900

Manager of the Buffalo Selling House

1908

Established the Typographic Library and Museum

1912

Suggested the organization of the Efficiency Department and appointed its first manager; designed and developed the Cut-Cost System of printing plant equipment

1892-1923

At all times a coöperative worker with other managers for the advancement of the Company's business

The Future

Constant loyalty to the President and the Organization

